One More (lyrics)

[Intro]
Yeah
Cristofaro
Clean Margin
We out here in Dublin
Was supposed to behave
Fuck that

[Hook]
One more drink
One more song
Said we'd head back soon
That was three bars ago

One more smoke
One more dance
She grabbed my hand
I never stood a chance

One more round
Forget the tab
Met you five minutes ago
Yeah put theirs on mine

One more night
If the city lets me
Dublin after dark
Got my girl right next to me

[Verse 1]
Black coat
Cold air
Late night
No plans

Walked in The George

Like I knew the place
Song hit right
She saw my face

She gave me that look
Makes my heart race
Should we take it easy?
Baby match my pace
Let’s make some space

Bass hit once
Then it hit twice
Bought another round
Didn’t ask the price

She threw it back
Damn she look nice
Got me feeling lucky
Making it bounce like dice

I threw a few shapes
She’s laughing beside me
We heating up the floor,
Like where’s the escape

Oh baby whatcha wanna do?
Came here with plans
But lost those by two
How about another chartreuse?
And lets turn loose

[Pre-Hook]
Said we should probably go
Then the next song came on

Looked at her
She looked at me

Yeah

That plan was gone

[Hook]
One more drink
One more song
Said we'd head back soon
That was three bars ago

One more smoke
One more dance
She grabbed my hand
I never stood a chance

One more round
Forget the tab
Met you five minutes ago
Yeah put theirs on mine

One more night
If the city lets me
Dublin after dark

[Verse 2]
Left Café en Seine
Still buzzing from the lights
Hit the street laughing
Like we owned the night

Then the drums kicked in Guitar cut through Crowd started forming
Out of nowhere too

Ten people ran in
I looked back at you

You said go
I said say less boo

Straight to the middle
Whole block came alive
Forty people moving
Like we planned it all night

No stage
No wristbands
Nothing set in stone

Best part of the night
Was the shit we never planned

[Bridge]
Funny through the noise
I could still hear her laugh
City moving way too quick
I just wanted it to last

All these voices
All these lights
Every corner on its feet

Still somehow
Through all that chaos
She was all that I could see

For one second
Everything slowed

Then somebody yelled

[Beat Drop]
One more

[Final Hook]

One more drink
One more song
We been saying last one
All damn night long

One more smoke
One more dance
She grabbed my hand again
Never had a fucking chance

One more round
Bring em all
Came out with my girl
Now we know half the bar

One more night
Forget going home
Dublin got us moving
Like the whole damn place was ours

One more laugh
One more kiss
One more where the hell are we Tell me what gets better than this

One more night
If the city lets me

Dublin after dark

[Outro]
Yeah
Cristofaro
Clean Margin
Obviously
